Note: Adjusted cash provided by operating activities is presented as an additional liquidity measure. Generally Accepted Accounting Principles require that the cash flow effects of changes in the amount of accounts receivable sold under the Company's receivables securitization program be reflected within operating cash flows. Internally, the Company considers accounts receivable sold to be a financing mechanism and not a source of cash flow related to operations. The Company believes it is helpful to provide readers of its financial statements with operating cash flows adjusted for the effects of changes in accounts receivable sold.
